Investment Options:

Option A:

Continue operating as a nightly accommodation business with a current income of €272,000 annually from room bookings. Additionally, there's the potential to lease the café/bar space for an extra €40,000 per year, bringing the total possible revenue to €312,000. This leaves substantial room for running costs.

Option B:

Convert the property into a House of Multiple Occupation (HMO), with a rental income potential of €10,000 monthly (€120,000 annually) from the rooms. This includes:

Room 1 (Double, Single): €1,600/month

Room 2 (Small Double): €1,200/month

Room 3 (Double, Single): €1,600/month

Room 4 (Double): €1,400/month

Room 5 (Double): €1,400/month

Room 6 (Double, Single): €1,400/month

Room 7 (Double, Single): €1,400/month

Additionally, the commercial café/bar space can be leased for €40,000 annually, bringing the total potential income to €160,000 annually under the HMO model. This results in an attractive 11.9% YIELD.

Prime Location:

Situated on the corner of Eccles Street and bustling Dorset Street, the Eccles Townhouse is conveniently located next to secure private parking, and just steps from the 747 & Aircoach airport shuttle stop. Croke Park, cultural hotspots such as the Hugh Lane Art Gallery, James Joyce Cultural Centre, and several theatres are all within walking distance. The townhouse is also a short stroll from Temple Bar, Trinity College, Guinness Hopstore, and shopping areas like Henry Street, making it an ideal spot for visitors and tenants alike.

Whether continuing as a guesthouse or transitioning to an HMO, the Eccles Townhouse offers substantial returns with its prime location and rich heritage appeal.
