We are delighted to present for sale, 65, Main Street, Macroom, Co. Cork. The premises is currently mixed use, and is being used as a retail unit, specifically a Fish Shop, with living area overhead.

There is generous storage space to the rear of the retail unit, which leads to a small enclosed rear yard.

The premises is suitable for many uses and is perfectly located on the Main Street of Macroom town, with generous foot fall, and visibility to anybody driving through the town.

The property has been lovingly restored by its current owner from a derelict building into what you see today and will provide its new owner an opportunity run a business in Macroom Town, or indeed one may wish to convert the entire building into a residence as there is excellent potential here for a 3 or 4 bed house.

Macroom itself is currently enjoying a renaissance in local trading with the population rapidly expanding and of course the benefit of the soon to be opened by pass, which will encourage more people to park and shop in the town centre for example, just look at Ballincollig and Midleton.

This link from google maps allows you to virtually step inside the premises. Just copy into your browser address bar;
