FULL PROPERTY DESCRIPTION:

Renovation Opportunity - Mid-Terrace Property with Huge Potential

Situated in a convenient residential location, this mid-terrace property presents an exciting opportunity for investors, builders, or buyers looking to create a bespoke home from the ground up.

The property requires full refurbishment throughout but offers a solid footprint and excellent scope for transformation.

Upon entering, the ground floor is currently stripped back to its shell, exposing original structural elements including timber joists and steel supports—ideal for redesigning the layout to suit modern living. The space has been cleared, providing a blank canvas for a complete renovation.

Upstairs, the property offers additional accommodation potential, ready to be reconfigured and finished to the buyer's taste.

To the rear, a block-built extension area is in place, offering scope to expand the kitchen/dining area or create additional living space, subject to necessary approvals.

Externally, the property shows signs of wear and would benefit from cosmetic and structural improvements, including roofline and façade upgrades.
