INVESTMENT / RE- DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY

We are delighted to present this landmark property to the market, set on an impressive site of approximately 2 acres.

The Iconic Vintage Moydow is a superb business opportunity offering immense potential for re development or relaunch and transform this well-known venue into a thriving restaurant, steakhouse, gastro bar, accommodation, rest bite center or events destination. It is not suitable for an IPAS center. Full of charm and character, this unique property combines a warm, welcoming atmosphere with generous space throughout.

Ideally located in the heart of a picturesque rural village, yet within easy access of Longford Town and surrounding areas, the property has long been recognised as a popular social and dining venue with an excellent reputation for hosting family and community occasions.

Accommodation briefly comprises an attractive entrance hallway leading to a spacious reception area and elegant piano lounge. Beyond this is a substantial traditional-style bar with open fireplace, together with a separate games/pool room. The property also features a large dining room with seating for approximately 30 guests, substantial function room with glass door and ceilings and separate bar with reception area a fully equipped commercial kitchen, prep room, cold room, and additional outbuildings.

To the rear is an impressive function room complete with a second bar, offering excellent space for weddings, christenings, confirmations, birthdays, corporate events, and large family gatherings. There is also self contained staff accommodation and 4 further bedrooms with future B&B potential.

An extra added benefit to this landmark property is a one bedroom apartment to the right of the development comprising of a kitchen / living room, main bathroom and one bedroom.

This is a rare opportunity to acquire a property with exceptional potential in a charming village setting.

Please NOTE: THIS PROPERTY DOES NOT HOLD A 7 DAY LICENSE.
