A superb opportunity to acquire a cottage on circa 3.06 acres in the village of Tomhaggard,

The property requires complete renovation, upgrading and modernisation and the land to the rear offers great potential as land for horses or for further development subject to planning permission.

Internally the property is dated and has never been modernised apart from electricity and water. There is an agricultural entrance to the side of the property which leads to the rear of the property with large rear garden and access gate large open field.

Located directly across from what was originally a local national school the nearest Primary School can be found in Kilmore Village approximately 5 kms away and both Primary & Secondary Schools can be found in Bridgetown 5kms. Tomhaggard is a quiet, traditional rural village that focuses on active community life and rich heritage with a community social centre, womens shed, Equestrian Centre and easy driving distance of Kilmore village and quay, and 12.5kms from Wexford town.
